Alfonso P. Conti, M.P.A., is the Managing Partner of Healthcare Services at Conti Consulting Services, LLC.

With over thirty years of experience in healthcare in the areas of auditing, reimbursement, operational reviews and financial analysis, he services clients in developing policies and procedures, training and work plans for Corporate Compliance, HIPAA and the laws and regulations scrutinized under an organizations' corporate compliance. He augments on quarterly basis twenty client compliance committees and conducts special operational risk assessment compliance reviews for nursing homes, hospitals and other health care organizations, as well as not-for-profit agencies, to identify and mitigate issues addressed in the organizations' corporate compliance plans. He also guides clients with reviews by the New York State Office of Medicaid Inspector General and the Federal Office of Inspector General and has given clients direction in addressing the elements of the Corporate Integrity Agreements (CIA) required by those governmental agencies

In positions at different consulting firms, Mr. Conti has provided a full scope of services in corporate compliance for different health care services and provided advice and direction to help the organizations assure their operations are functioning consistent with the regulatory requirements that are directly impacted under their corporate compliance plans and policies. He managed an $8.5 billion portfolio with the Dormitory Authority of New York State and his auditing and operational experience evolved from time with Blue Cross, several hospitals, and a Big Four accounting firm, as well as his leadership position at the Nassau Suffolk Hospital Council.

Mr. Conti has a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from St. Bonaventure University and a Master's in Public Administration from Long Island University. He is a member of the Health Care Financial Management Association and has presented his consultative knowledge through various lectures and articles on the different aspects of corporate compliance.

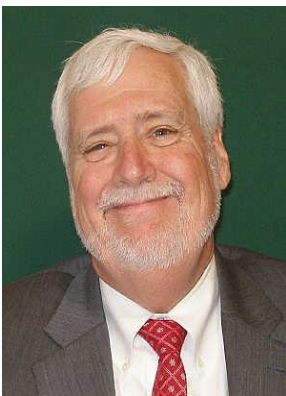

Lourdes M. Martinez, J.D., is a Partner/Director at Garfunkel Wild, P.C. She is Co-Chair of the firm's Compliance and White Collar Defense, and a member of the HIPAA Compliance and Health Care Practice Groups. Ms. Martinez's practice includes: defending clients in criminal, civil and regulatory government actions; assisting clients in implementing both fraud and abuse and HIPAA compliance programs; and advising clients on a wide array of compliance, regulatory and business matters.

Ms. Martinez has defended clients in federal False Claims Act cases, quality of care cases, physician licensing matters and federal, state and other third-party audits. Her clients include both for-profit and not-for-profit skilled nursing facilities, hospitals, home health agencies, physicians and other providers.

Ms. Martinez frequently writes and lectures on regulatory defense and compliance issues. Her published works include articles written for the New York Health Law Update and the New York State Bar Association's Health Law Journal. In addition, Ms. Martinez was a contributing author to the Legal Manual for New York Physicians, published by the New York State Bar Association in conjunction with the Medical Society of the State of New York.

Prior to joining Garfunkel Wild, P.C in 1998. Ms. Martinez was an Assistant District Attorney in the Kings County District Attorney's Office, where she prosecuted hundreds of felony cases from inception through trial and served as Special Counsel to the Crimes Against Children Bureau. Ms. Martinez has also taught Civil Trial Practice at St. John's University School of Law as an Adjunct Professor.

Ms. Martinez is admitted to practice law in New York and New Jersey. She is a member of the American Health Lawyers Association, the Healthcare Compliance Association, the Nassau County Bar Association, and serves on the Committee of the Health Law Section of the New York State Bar Association. Ms. Martinez received her law degree from St. John's University School of Law in 1992 and is a graduate of the University of Scranton, where she received a B.S. in Chemistry and Business in 1988.

Walter G. Metz, C.P.A., M.S., J.D., is the Compliance Officer for the Good Samaritan Hospital Medical Center and Good Samaritan Nursing Home of the Catholic Health Systems of Long Island.

Prior to his current position, Mr. Metz served as General Counsel and Compliance Officer for Brookhaven Memorial Hospital Medical Center.

Mr. Metz has over twenty years of experience in overseeing the corporate compliance of health care services organizations within the delivery system (including long term care, acute care, ambulatory care and home care services) and addresses all aspects of potential risk within the operational and legal frameworks guiding the delivery of health care.

Mr. Metz is a Certified Public Accountant and holds a Master's of Science degree in Health Care Policy and Administration from Stony Brook University. He earned a Juris Doctor from Touro Law School and is admitted to the New York State Bar.
